Editor's Note

by Charles Brooks

Man the year has flown by. Feels like just yesterday we were out for the numb thumb fly. I guess it is true as you get older the time flies by faster. Big thanks to the fall classic guys, for a low key event this year they did a great job, and looks like everyone had a blast. After all nothing like 5 cubs in the air at a time.

Several of you have had asked where I have been all year, well my interest have changed a little. Still keeping in the hobby and flying, but there was a female that came along. I guess you could say I'm looking at Wedding bells in December. Looking forward to next year as my soon to be step daughter has asked me to teach her to fly.

Happy Flying.....The Cub Man
